Twenty Three Years of Walking with Jesus

FROM THE COMMUNITY LAY DIRECTOR

“Praise God from whom all blessings flow...” These lyrics to the doxology float through my head as I reflect back on the closing comments made by the men and women of Walks 93 and 94, a powerful witness to our living Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! Thanks and praise be to God for the sponsorship, for the teams and preparations, for the 4th Day community support and for the Pilgrims, now 4th Day. Praise God for God’s doing a work in us and through us and among us! Surely God has purposed us for such a time and place as this, to love and serve God in these ways.

New members to the Three Rivers Walk to Emmaus Community – again, welcome! It is our earnest hope and prayer that your recent Emmaus experience lingers with you with fond memories and that you take full advantage of the ongoing opportunities that fan your flames – song break – “...felt the fire burn brightly within you. Then I say – ay, you’ve seen Jesus my Lord. Have you seen Jesus my Lord? He’s here in plain view...”

For all 4th Day community, these fan-your-flame opportunities include Reunion Groups, serving and participating at Gatherings, Sponsorship, serving on team for upcoming Walks, Emmaus Education Day, TRWE Summer picnic – all of which are mentioned in the Newsletter below, or on the TRWE.org website.

The mission of Emmaus: to empower leaders to be the hands and feet of Christ!

The vision of Emmaus: 4th day leaders embodying Christ

And all for God’s glory! Amen?

DeColores,
Ken Gryger
Community Lay Director, 2015

FROM THE COMMUNITY SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

"I would have left this Emmaus community a long time ago..."
Have you ever had one of those days?? The kind where nothing seems to be going right, no matter how hard you try?

You know what I'm talking about. You pick up the phone thinking your friend is calling to talk-only to find out he has a list of complaints about you. Or what about the time you said something with the intention of helping someone and that person misunderstood what you were trying to say and got her feelings hurt. Or you stood up for what you believed to be right and it seemed as though everyone was against you.

This kind of stuff happens to me all the time in our Emmaus community. Maybe it has happened to you too. We are a family and families always seem to hurt the people they love the most.

I think Jesus understands this; I think Jesus knows how difficult it is for us to forgive those who have hurt us. He must because he spends so much of his ministry talking about forgiveness.

Do you remember that time Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, how often should I forgive someone who sins against me? Seven times?" Jesus answers, "No, not seven times, but seventy times seven!" (Mt. 18:21-22)

And then Jesus proceeds to tell Peter and the disciples the parable of the unforgiving servant. You know the story, don't you?

Once upon a time there was a king who decided to speak with all those who owed him money. Seated on his golden throne, the king called in his servant-the one who owed him millions of dollars. The servant can't pay back the king and so the king decided to throw the servant in jail-along with his wife and children and decided to sell everything the servant owned. The servant then fell down on his knees and asked for mercy, "Please, please be patient with me and I will pay it all," he begged the king.

The king was overwhelmed and showed mercy to the man. Such abundant mercy-he decided to forgive his debt-ALL OF IT, every last penny!

No sooner did the servant leave the king's chamber when he came across a friend of his, who just happened to owe him money. He grabbed his friend by the neck and demanded his money, then and there! When his friend fell down at his feet and begged for mercy, the servant refused and had his friend thrown in jail.

When some of the servant's other friends saw this, they were upset and went and told the king what they had witnessed. The king called the servant before him and asked, "How could you do this? I forgave you when you asked for mercy. You should have mercy as well." (Mt. 18:23-33)

How often do we act like that servant who is unable to forgive? We ask God for mercy; we ask God to forgive us; and then we hold on to the offenses of others, refusing to forgive them? God forgives us for every sin. So out of our love for God, how can we withhold forgiveness from our brothers and sisters? Jesus tells us to love one another. That is so difficult to do when we are holding on to past hurts and pain.

Our Emmaus community is made of imperfect people. People who make mistakes; people who inadvertently hurt one another; people who don't always listen to each other; people who are human; clergy who are human.

If someone in our Emmaus community has hurt you, I beg you, beloved, to forgive him/her. Whether you talk to that person about how he/she hurt you or not, do not carry that grudge around with you. Go to God and ask for God's help to forgive.

Because I guarantee you, beloved, no one sets out to hurt another person. No one wakes up one morning and says to herself, "Hum...who can I hurt today?"

At the last closing, a wise man came up to me and said, "If I was not able to forgive my brothers and sisters, I would have left this Emmaus community a long time ago."

The easy thing to do when we are hurt is to just leave the community, often with the "I'll fix them" attitude. Guess who loses out when that happens?

When we stick around to forgive the brother or sister who has hurt us, which is usually the more difficult thing to do, we win because only then are we able to be overwhelmed by God's amazing grace!

Yours in Christ,

Cindy Parker, TRWE #64

Community Spiritual Director

COMMUNITY THANK YOU

"Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." Matthew 25:40

There is always a flurry of activity behind the scenes of an Emmaus weekend and this set of walks was no exception. Meals were served, facility cleaning duty was supported and prayers were lifted up for the pilgrims and team members. I had petitioned the community to help out during both sets of walks and the community answered the call.

I want to offer my heartfelt gratitude to those who were able and willing to help with Walks #93 and #94!

It is amazing to me how a Thursday afternoon turns a campsite into a major event. And then before you know it, it's Sunday afternoon and it's time for closing and you realize that you are witnessing a revival service complete with one personal testimony after another. And then the new community members share communion with their sponsors – their family members and close friends.

It is so worth the extra time and effort to help out during these precious weekends. Again, "Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!"

In His Service,

TRWE Community 4th Day Coordinator,

HOW HAS GOD BEEN MEDDLING IN YOUR LIFE LATELY???

“This is a person’s witness to God’s presence in his or her life and to the developments in his or her walk with the risen Lord. The witness may stem from an experience, a spiritual learning, a reflection on a stretch of his or her spiritual journey or a challenge to live more fully in holiness and service.” [Upper Room Emmaus Handbook page 126]

The ideal 4th Day talk at an Emmaus Community Gathering is easy to characterize. It’s the talk that you give, in your own words, that gives witness to how God has been meddling in your life to mold you and shape you into the likeness of God’s son, Jesus Christ, for your sake but also for the sake of the world around you. Maybe that molding and shaping has been a little uncomfortable. But both in the midst and at the end of that discomfort we often see the great work that God has been doing. This is your authentic and most powerful witness. It’s meant to be shared.

Consider the Song of Miriam, Exodus 15:1-21, as a simple example. The song recounts and celebrates what God has done and continues to do in the lives of the Chosen people. Or consider the story of the healing of the blind man from John Chapter 9. (That story is so rich!) In verse 25, the blind-man-given-sight-by-Jesus replied to the Pharisees, “I don’t know if he’s a sinner or not (referring to Jesus). But I do know one thing. I used to be blind, but now I can see.”

This is the essence of a powerful 4th Day talk at a Gathering: “I was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see.” And that act of God in my life has made all the difference. Remember the Changing Our World talk from your Emmaus Walk? Life change starts with you, with me. Out from there, it next extends to our families, our neighborhoods, our communities. The world is changed one life at a time. That’s our witness to God @ work in our very midst! We need to hear it!

Will you consider telling your story of God at work in your life since your Emmaus Walk? Some simple guidelines: 1) Not polished speaking but a polished talk – take time to prepare thoughtfully and prayerfully. Ask your sponsor, pastor, or reunion group to help you along. 2) Give God the glory. The talk is about you, certainly, but more importantly about God working in and through you to grow you into the person, made in God’s image and likeness, that God had designed you to be to serve God’s purposes in and for God’s broken world, the world he loves so much (John 3:16).

GOOD NEWS FROM OUR TREASURER

We are pleased to inform the community that the IRS 990 forms were filed for the years 2011 - 2013 (as well as for 2014), and the IRS form 1025 was filed to request retroactive reinstatement of our tax exempt status. In a somewhat unprecedented 6 days, the IRS approved our request and our tax exempt status has been reinstated retroactively to May 15, 2014. God is good..... All the time. Be assured that the Board has implemented procedures to ensure that this administrative mishap will not occur in the future. Thank you for your continued support and prayers. Chub Dietz, TRWE Treasurer

SPOTLIGHT ON AN ANGEL

Tribute to Carena Phillips

Carena was on a “mission from God” when I met her. Wow! What a powerhouse that woman was. The best advice she gave me was that she would never allow anyone to rain on her parade. She was small, but mighty.

She was devoted to her family; she cherished her children and she was committed to her husband and their shared passion of serving God.

The last time we were together, she encouraged me to support another mission from God in which she was involved. I am embarrassed to say that I turned her down.

Well, guess what. Even while Carena was sick, she was still moving people to action. She passed the baton of servant-hood to me and I am officially doing the job role that Carena was doing for Three Rivers Walk to Emmaus.

Psalm 16:11 reads, “You have shown me the path of life, in your presence, there is fullness of joy and in your right hand there will be pleasures forever more.” Sounds to me what heaven must be like.”

And just a few verses later, Psalm 17:8 says, “Keep me as the apple of thine eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings.”

Right now, Carena is the apple of God’s eye; she is in His right hand; He has her nestled under the shadow of His wings.

What better place can she be? God bless.

From one of her many friends,

Pam Walter

SPRING 2015 WALKS

A Note from the Registrar Committee...

Many thanks to the Walk #93/94 Sponsors. It was a pleasure meeting and serving you and your pilgrims. What a great group of men and women to join our TRWE Community!! ( See page 8 with the names of our newest members and their sponsors. 😊)

It's never too early to send in a pilgrim application. Pray and ask God to guide you to whomever He is calling to attend. Sponsorship is as rewarding as being a pilgrim and information can be found on the www.trwe.org website regarding sponsorship. You can also download a pilgrim application from the same website. (Be sure you have the current application with Judy Grice's address: 1105 Vista Valley Rd, Washington, PA 15301.) The application deadline for both Fall Walks is October 12, 2015. As always, we look forward to serving you.

DeColores,

Judy Grice TRWE #40. Janet Ruckel TRWE #2 and Sharon Gallagher TRWE
