The Emmaus Story

Two disciples walked from Jerusalem to Emmaus, broken and confused. A stranger joined them, opened the Scriptures, and walked beside them the whole way. When he broke bread at the table—their eyes were opened.

“Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road?”

LUKE 24:32

An invitation to walk that road again—and recognize Christ along the way.

A Weekend Full of Grace

What happens on the walk—and what comes next

72 hours set apart for GOD

Small Groups

Deep conversations and real community.

15 Talks

From laity and clergy on God's grace.

Worship

Singing and prayer throughout.

Communion

Daily celebration of Christ's presence.

Over seventy-two hours, pilgrims gather for worship, reflection, fellowship, and fifteen talks given by both clergy and laity. Each talk opens a window into God's grace—how that grace is at work in the Christian community and how it calls each of us to respond.

You'll participate in daily Holy Communion, prayer, singing, small group discussion, and quiet moments set apart for God. Experience the love of Christ through the anonymous prayers and acts of service of the broader Emmaus community surrounding the weekend.

Life After the Walk: The Journey Continues
